PART 1: Pre-Seminar Preparation & Textual Evidence

Prompt 1 (Character Motivation & Loyalty): Examine Johnny and Ponyboy's decision to hide in Windrixville with Dally's assistance. Was their fleeing primarily driven by self-preservation, group loyalty, or panic? State your claim and cite specific chapter evidence.

My Claim & Character Analysis:

Direct Textual Evidence (Quote & Chapter #):

Prompt 2 (Symbolism & Social Class): Select ONE key symbol (Greaser Hair, Two-Bit's Switchblade, or Sunsets). Explain how this symbol reveals a deeper theme about identity or class divisions between Socs and Greasers.

Selected Symbol: | Associated Theme:

Symbolic Analysis & Novel Connection:

PART 2: Active Seminar Discussion Tracker (During Seminar)

Log at least TWO distinct contributions made by classmates during today's discussion lab.

Speaker Name	Key Insight or Quote Shared	My Response / Connection / Counter-Point

PART 3: Post-Seminar Reflection & STEAL Character Inference

Reflection Prompt (Heroism vs. Delinquency): The newspaper calls Johnny and Ponyboy 'Juvenile Delinquents Turn Heroes.'
Apply the STEAL method (Speech, Thoughts, Effect, Actions, Looks) to argue whether these characters are defined by their past or their heroic rescue in Windrixville.

PART 4: Socratic Seminar Self-Assessment

Criteria	4 - Advanced	3 - Proficient	2 - Developing	Score
Textual Evidence	Cited chapter quotes to back every claim.	Referenced specific novel events accurately.	Made general statements without evidence.
Active Listening	Built directly on peer ideas using talk stems.	Listened attentively and stayed engaged.	Was distracted or spoke out of turn.
